

The Ickleton Society The Society is run by volunteers and continues to promote the interests of Ickleton residents and help maintain the lovely village environment. It was originally founded in 1981 in response to the proposed expansion of Stansted Airport.

Funding for the Society's continuation is from villagers' subscriptions.

Members are cordially invited to the Society's Annual General Meeting in May, where there is a talk of local interest by an invited speaker, accompanied by refreshments in addition to the year's business.

There is no obligation to take an active part in the Society or attend meetings but members are always welcome and especially the events.

What does The Ickleton Society do?

- Encourages high standards of planning and development in the village and local area; active participation and comments with expertise in relevant campaigns- supports environmental issues.
- Organises enjoyable social activities such as: The New Year's Day walk with soup lunch, children's Easter Egg Hunt, expert wine tasting, local interest visits and walks, fascinating exhibitions and talks.
- Active local history group with numerous completed and ongoing projects, including extensive award winning online image/record gallery and village archive.
- Hosts an annual village litter pick with refreshments.
